WINE LIST

Dear Guests,

“Life is too short to drink bad wine.”

As a member of a winemaking family, I place special importance on the quality of our wine selection. Each glass tells its own story – from the gentle hills of Italy, to the noble vines of France, and the robust wines of Spain. We take particular pride in our Prosecco, which comes directly from my family’s vineyard.

Additionally, discover our excellent house wine, the Carramimbre Crianza Ribera del Duero, as well as fine selections like the exquisite Barolo. Our team is here to assist you in choosing the perfect wine for you.

Let yourself be seduced and enjoy every moment.

Warm regards and cheers to your health,

Simon Tabellini

OUR HOUSE PROSECCO

The story of our house Prosecco:

The Coine Prosecco DOCG Extra Dry is much more than just a fine sparkling wine – it tells the story of our family and our roots. It all began in the early 20th century in Follina, a small village in the province of Treviso. The Bisol family, which includes Carlo Bisol, was not only a winemaking family but also pioneers of viticulture. They developed tools, explored new technologies, and experimented with distillation, always with the goal of producing excellent quality wines.

Today, Prosecco is not just a symbol of our passion but also a proud heritage that keeps the memories of our ancestors alive. They were the ones who, through hard work and many sacrifices, created the vineyards on the hills of Treviso. Each glass is a tribute to their dedication and the rich soil that continues to inspire us to this day.

Let our Prosecco transport you to Treviso and immerse you in our story – a piece of Italy in every sip.

COÏNE PROSECCO SUPERIORE DOCG EXTRA DRY

8.00 50.00

Coine Prosecco DOCG Extra Dry – A true gem from my family's homeland, this fine drop reflects the love and tradition of winemaking passed down from generation to generation.

This Prosecco impresses with its fine, persistent perlage, gently rising in the glass, accompanied by a bright straw-yellow shimmer. The bouquet reveals fresh aromas of ripe apples, juicy pears, and delicate white flowers, giving the wine its unmistakable elegance. On the palate, it offers a harmonious balance of vibrant freshness and soft, fruity sweetness typical of an Extra Dry.

Its fine structure and light minerality make it the perfect companion for light appetizers, fish dishes, or simply as an aperitif to celebrate special moments.

Coine Prosecco DOCG Extra Dry – A glass full of passion, straight from the heart of our family vineyards.
